

FAITHFUL DISPUTE RESOLUTION - RESIDENTIAL MEDIATION COURSE

12.00PM TUESDAY 31 MAY – 2.00PM SATURDAY 4 JUNE 2016

ISLAMIC FOUNDATION, MARKFIELD, LEICESTER

You will be taught by Dr Zaza Elsheikh co-founder of Belief in Mediation and Arbitration (www.bimagroup.org), Converge for Life (www.convergeforlife.com) and Commercial Dispute Solutions LLP (www.cmds.org.uk) and guests including: David Richbell, Duncan Jarrett OBE, Qasim Nawaz, Stephen Ruttle QC and Islamic scholars Sheikh Fahimul Anam, Sheikh Usama Hasan and Imam Abid Salik.

Completion of this 35-hour intensive and thought-provoking course will allow you to become a mediator with specialist skills in faithful dispute resolution achieved through the following learning objectives:

- ✓ To understand that conflict between and within communities is a natural phenomenon.
- ✓ To analyse scriptural sources that demonstrate mediation is an integral part of Islamic scriptures¹ and traditions.
- ✓ To practise and develop conflict resolution skills that address parties' religious sensitivities in commercial, community, family, intergenerational, probate, school and workplace disputes.
- ✓ To learn how to record terms agreed by the parties in legally binding agreements that are enforceable in English Courts.
- ✓ To achieve a good level of knowledge and skill that will be highly relevant to educational, legal and social careers.
- ✓ To feel confident in resolving conflicts within communities and easily access internationally recognised specialist training in commercial, family and workplace mediation

EARLY BIRD PRICE: £250 including all course materials, accommodation and meals
To book, please contact 01322 314 820 or email zaza@cmds.org.uk by 25 April 2016.
